

6.7 Write Stage

Write Stage

- The Write Stage is used to transmit values from a Blue Prism Process, to an external application.
- These values may be the result of an Expression or may be a value stored within a Data Item.
- Before the Write Stage can transmit a value to an application, the Element field must first be defined in Application Modeller.

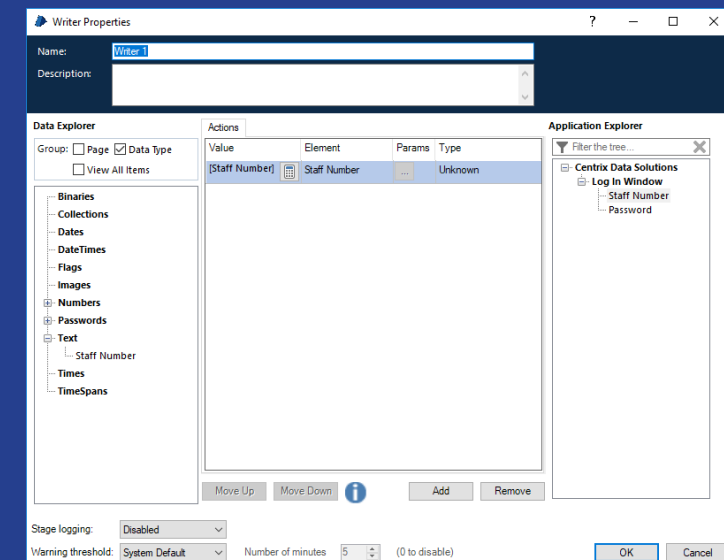

Write Stage.

Object Diagram with Write Stage and Data Items.

Data Item providing value for Write Stage.

Write Stage properties window.